

Addressing Poor Performance:

Course Description:

This session is to provide guidance and advice to managers and supervisors to assist them in appropriately identifying the difference between performance and conduct with a focused emphasis on how to effectively address deficient employee performance.