

Leave Restriction

Course Description:

This session will help managers identify if an employee is abusing their leave. Managers will also learn to understand the different types of leave and how to address employee's specific needs relating to leave.